The approval of the Secretary, Forward Markets Commission, under sub-section (1) of Section 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1952 (74 of 1952) read with Notification No. S.O. 1162 dated the 4th May 1960, has been obtained to the following additions made to the Bye-laws of the Cochin Oil Merchants' Association, Cochin, the same having been previously placed on the Notice Board of the Association, pursuant to Section 11 of the said Act and Rule 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Rules, 1954:—

Additional Bye-laws relating to Transferable Specific Delivery Contracts

34A. Bye-law Nos. 34A to Bye-law Nos. 34J (both inclusive) are additional bye-laws for purposes of Transferable Specific Delivery Contracts. All the bye-laws of the Association as may be enforced at any time or from time to time shall also be applicable to all matters connected with the Transferable Specific Delivery Contracts, in so far as these matters are not specifically dealt with in the additional Bye-laws for transferable specific delivery contracts and are not repugnant to the additional bye-laws.

34B. For purposes of trading in transferable specific delivery contract in coconut oil, there shall be a contract known as Transferable Specific Delivery Contract, the terms and conditions of which shall be as per the following paragraphs of this chapter.

34C. (1) There shall be 12 transferable specific delivery contracts in a year each known after the calendar month namely January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, November and December.

(2) The Board may permit not more than 2 transferable specific delivery contracts to run concurrently.

(3) The Board shall fix the date of commencement of trading in a particular contract with the concurrence of the Forward Markets Commission and no person shall enter into a contract before the same has commenced.

(4) The Board will usually permit trading in a particular transferable specific delivery contract two months prior to the due date of the relative contract.

(5) The due date of transferable specific delivery contracts shall be the 19th of the relative month or if that day happens to be a holiday, the previous working day.

(6) The delivery period shall commence from the 20th day of the relative month.

(7) The Board shall have power to vary the number of contracts to run concurrently, the due dates and the date of commencement of delivery period, with the concurrence of Forward Markets Commission.

34D. The contracts shall be made out in the forms prescribed therefor by the Board and signed by both the seller and buyer and also by the broker who negotiated the contracts.

34E. The parties to the transferable specific delivery contracts shall stipulate in the contracts the price of the oil plus the Excise duty payable by the buyer to the seller. Any new imposition and/or variations made by the Government in the Excise duty between the time of entering into the contract and that of delivery shall be on account of the seller.

34F. (1) A transferable specific delivery contract shall be transferable subject to a maximum of 2 transfers exclusive of the original sale.

(2) Transferable specific delivery contracts entered into as per these bye-laws shall end in delivery only.

34G. The specifications, units of trading and quotation, payment of margin for the transferable specific delivery contracts, etc., shall be the same as are applicable to the hedge contracts.

34H. Every transferable specific delivery contract shall be registered in the Association before 11 A.M. on the day next to the entering into of such contract.

34I. Delivery in respect of transferable specific delivery contracts shall be effected in accordance with the provisions in the bye-laws relating to the tenders and delivery orders applicable to hedge contracts.

34J. Clearing in respect of transferable specific delivery contracts shall be effected in such manner as may be decided by the Board from time to time.
